

It's challenging enough being a contractor, without the added pressures of doing the books

Lack of timely, accurate financial information can often leave contractors running purely on instinct. This instinct can only get you so far. We all know your time is best spent on the business, driving growth and innovation, as opposed to working in it.

We are pretty savvy when it comes to new technology here at BDS, which means you can focus on what you do best – it's a proactive approach. Why wait until the end of the year to find out how you are doing and how much the tax is. Get up-to-date support from our friendly and approachable team.

How can BDS Chartered Accountants help?

No contractor likes processing their tax, but it's an essential part of running of being self-employed. Doing it yourself can be time consuming and frustrating, especially when you have other things you need to be taking care of.

We attract contractors because we have a no-nonsense approach to your needs, whilst also having a good understanding of the challenges and frustrations you have. This makes us well positioned to give you the answers you need, when you need them.

Accounting & Taxes

Most commonly it's accounting and taxes that springs to mind when we think of an accountant. At BDS Chartered Accountants, we make sure your year-end taxes get filed on time, take care of preparing your GST returns, and keep you up to date on when your taxes are due. But we take it one step further and ensure you are utilising all the options available to minimise your tax.

Answering Questions

Throughout the year you will have questions about whether you are doing something right or how to finance your next vehicle purchase and obtaining funding from the bank for your home or an investment. Because we work with contractors every day, we are placed to give you the answers without making a big fuss about it.

Xero

We know what systems are needed, when, and importantly we know how they work, this means you have support when you need it. We are platinum Xero partners and can have you up and running in no time.

Advice

Advice might be one-off help on a particular transaction, sometimes you need a coordinated plan. Whatever it is, we've done it before. A key role we fulfil as business advisors is holding you accountable.
